

Please do not change to LPFM stations. I do not want to lose my favorite radio station. It is not crude or vulgar and does not tolerate bad language. It is one of two christian stations for young people in my area. The other station does not always play music. Airl is positive and I have heard testimonies from people about how Airl has changed their lives. You can take a look at air1.com